MONOCHROME COLLECTION

by Alain Berteau

(www.alainberteau.com)

No walls, but open spaces – that's how we'll be living tomorrow. In homes with a bathroom that opens out into the bedroom or dressing room, that bathroom has to be stylishly designed. Not with the umpteenth vanity-and-cabinet combination, but with a piece of furniture that has real character. We wanted to get away from the old design stereotype. It had to be something that would look just as good in your living room."

A single touch on the remote control fills the room with music to set the perfect atmosphere for your bathroom.

The first mirror to reflect both front and back simultaneously

When we are in the bathroom, we have to contort ourselves in strange ways in order to reach the back of our head, our neck or back. The new – patented – mirror concept by Alke reflects the front and back of the body at once, and takes a giant leap forward in terms of usability.

Style your hair, shave neck hair, clasp on a chain, putting on a bra, fit a dress with thin straps or a zipper at the back... all this is now possible with no effort: unadulterated bathroom comfort!

Integrated camera and display in left and right mirror panels, functional led light panel, led light strip in left mirror panel.

Dimensions: 1000 mm to 2000 mm, combined with sound bar 1200 mm to 2000 mm.

SMART MIRROR
www.alke.be

A mirror full of hidden technological features that make our life that little bit more special, but with an eye for the environment. What do you think about a heated mirror that only demists when it really needs to? And functional lighting that only switches on when you are standing in front of the mirror? A mirror that gives the current temperature in the bathroom?

Ambient lighting that you can dim whilst lolling in the bath or turn on full when doing your facial? Whilst you wash, you can listen to the news on the radio or enjoy music from your smartphone or home media system. Even your weighing scales can be connected to the wellness mirror!

QUADRO WITH WATER MIRROR | Mirror cabinet with doors with led canopy and integrated tap. Equipped with almost invisibly integrated high-end faucets, ambient lighting and an IR-light sensor. Providing excellent comfort with vast mirror surfaces, efficient functional light, substantially less maintenance.
